

New, Summer 2010!

New Books You Can Borrow from the Museum Research Library...

For Museum Members and Volunteers

♦ Historical Accounts of Voyages ♦ Adventure ♦ Exploration ♦ Shipbuilding ♦

♦ Seafaring ♦ Maritime History ♦ Ocean Travel ♦ California History ♦ Sailors ♦

These are just a few titles from our shelves of historical fiction and non-fiction for your reading pleasure at home. Borrow a book for up to three weeks with your Museum Membership Card. Look at a partial listing of our Lending Library on <http://www.librarything.com/catalog/LAMMLibrary>

Read about the lives of adventurers on the high seas ...

... and accounts of discovery, exploration that are our legacy.

Re-acquaint yourself with the discovery of the Arctic, the islands, peoples and sailors on the Pacific Ocean, gold-seekers who endured a long journey by sea around Cape Horn, myths of the American West, an encyclopedia of maritime history with oceanography and marine archeology as new entries. Learn from oral interviews about the political struggle of the people of Taiwan. Become more conversant with history and writers, capable of illuminating the past for us, the beneficiaries of their art.
